

Susquehanna Brittany Club
Specialty Show
July 19, 2008

The Susquehanna Brittany Club held their annual specialty show in conjunction with the Nita Nee All Breed Club on Saturday July 19, 2008. Vice President Dan Rein and Club Members Lou and Karen Palazzalo and Marilyn Fenicle were on the show grounds early with coffee and pastries for all of the exhibitors. Judy Cohen did her usual superb trophy job having baskets and art prints for all of the big winners. All of the exhibitors appreciated the placement trophies – a green spray cleaning product supplied by Dan Rein....something that we all use everyday!! The weather was hot with temperatures heading towards the 90's when the judging was complete. The Susquehanna Brittany club thanks the Nita Nee Kennel Club and especially their show chairperson, Carol Brown, for the wonderful grounds and hospitality. This all breed club is a true pleasure to work with and makes our day so easy. The Sweepstakes Judge, Ms Britt Jung had a nice selection of 18 puppies to select from. She selected Mt. View's Triple Crown bred and owned by Mary Ann Breininger and Pat Ortelli. This bitch went on to Winner's Bitch and Best of Winners and Best of Opposite Sex and finishing her AKC Show Championship. Needless to say Pat Ortelli had a Wonderful day! The regular judge, Skip Herendeen, also selected Diamond Hill Dangerous Man as his Winners Dog and for Best of Breed with a total entry of 55 including 13 specials was Ch. Granmars Cando Diamond Credit handled by Cheryl Mika for owners Tim Foley and Patrick Brown.

In the Junior Showmanship ring, all of the Brittany Junior Handlers received a placement. Natalie Armbuster received a third in the Novice Junior class, Angel Rumbolo received a second in the Open Intermediate and Elizabeth Shellehamer received a second in the Open Senior Class.
